25X1 14. [] Called Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, about the transcript of the Director's testimony before the Special Subcommittee on Intelligence, explaining that while the Director had understood the prepared statement was to be published, he was under the impression that his extemporaneous comments were to remain classified. Slatinshek said they would like to declassify for publication as much of the entire record as possible but would give us considerable leeway in suggesting deletions. I said this would be fine.

25X1 15. [] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and asked for any information we had on [] who is a diplomat in the country legally and stationed at the Russian Embassy. Sourwine has reason to believe [] is a little more than just a diplomat. [] is checking. 25X1

25X1 16. [] In response to his earlier call and based upon the advice of [], told Dick McCormack that the phone number [] was not an Agency number. McCormack said that he had information otherwise and referred to a phone conversation with a business manager of the phone company, and I said I would check further. (McCormack said he formerly worked closely with the National Security Council staff and Bob Komer and recently ran unsuccessfully for Congress. The above phone number was formerly his and he feels embarrassed because friends who try to contact him on that number get strange hesitating replies and final admission that it is a CIA number. [] is checking this out.) 25X1

25X1 17. [] Walt Evans, in the office of Senator Mark Hatfield (R., Oreg.), called concerning the [] cases and said that if our package was not ready by Wednesday he would prefer that it be held up until Monday since the Senator would be out of town. 25X1

18. (Secret - LLM) Spoke with Colgate Prentice, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Congressional Relations, State Department, on the proposed wrapup of the congressional inquiries [REDACTED] He had no problem with the substance of the proposed letter for Secretary Rogers, but felt that the Director and not Rogers should sign it. Further, he suggested that we delete the final paragraph of the background statement which is to the effect that the Congressmen are requesting the Department of State to confirm the deaths. Prentice said he would give me a call tomorrow as soon as he had reviewed the package with Mr. Sullivan, Chief, Asian Communist Affairs.
